Synopsis

At some point, parents realize we can't control everything, and we can't produce a lifetime of happy endings for our kids. But rather than throwing up our hands in defeat, wise moms know prayer for children is the best thing we can do. So we get on our knees and seek wisdom and help from God, the one who created our children and loves them even more than we do. In this prayer book, the author equips parents with forty powerful prayers rooted in Scripture. Due to the eternal relevancy of God's Word, each prayer is appropriate for children of all ages from the unborn to adult. So whether you are a new parent or your children have all left your nest, let these prayers guide you in covering your children with God's promises, wisdom, and favor. This will pave their paths and lay foundations for them to choose ways that are pleasing to Him. At the same time, it will help you:

- establish greater trust in the Lord as the ultimate caretaker of your children,
- renew your focus and perspective on parenting,
- grow your love for your Heavenly Parent, and
- disrupt the enemy's schemes for your children's li
